A Salute To Our Canddates Looking at the overall personnel of the city government in Belle Glade, one cannot but note the ability of those who hold public office and the ability of those who ran for office and lost, as well as those who ran and were elected in the recent city election.

The Orient Can Be Most Interesting

Two Belle Glade ladies, Ruth Wedgworth and Edith Freed lund were privileged to make a tour of the Orient this summer and their reports of places visited, things seen and their observations vations, we believe, are very interesting reading. We offer this report, as of interest to teenagers, in school, to grown ups for the observations on the life of the Orientals and descriptive recome, than trees.

Some sort of flaming flower bush, would also, beautify the Everglades. Some States, have beautiful vines on all their bridges, which makes a display that is most attractive. The Everglades has the right kind of soil in which vines would rapidly grow.

JAPAN

Our Oriental Tour started in San Francisco with a Cocktai Party in the Sheraton Palace Hotel the night before departure so the twelve could become acquainted. There were twelve people including the Director, Maurice Bridges who lives in Morris N. Y. One couple was from Ft. Lauderdale, and one from Miam

The flight to Japan took fifteen hours, with a stop over of two hours in Honolulu, Japan Alr. Lines plane, Kirshima, was modern in every way. The Hostesses were attractive Japanese girls in native costume. Five meals were served to us, more ela-borate than in the United States. Before each meal, the Hostess borate than in the United States. Before each meal, the Hostess passed a tray of steaming hot small towels. When we crossed the International Date Line and lost a day, we were each given a Parchment Scroll telling us that the Seven Benign Deities of Happiness, Wealth, Good Fortune, Beauty, Long Life, Wisdom and Dignity extended blessings to each of us. Our names were printed on these; Scrolls, and they were autographed by the Captain. There were orchide on our luncheon and dinner trays, and a lovely fan was given each.

We drove miles and miles thru the city, over a super highway, from the Airport to the Imperial Hotel in Tokyo. The Old Imperial is of Japanese design, by Frank Lloyd Wright, but the New Wing is modern in every way, and looked much like any American Hotel.

Sightseeing in a small bus was very educational. We were accompanied everywhere by a Native Guide, Nicky Nishimura, who stood at the front of the bus and told us everything of interest. Besides the bus driver, there was a young, attractive girl in uniform and cap, who directed the bus in backing, turning etc. She stood outside and when the road was clear, she blew her whistle continuously and when she stopped, it was a sign for the driver to stop. The girl also opened the door and assisted us. The busses were modern, and as there were only twelve of us, we could each have a seat. The first day we visited a Picture Gallery, Asskusa Amusement Center, and Nikombashi — Ginza hopping street. The Ginza is a street, but easy for pedistrians, It has shops on each side. The store fronts are open, and merchandlus is displayed attractively. At the end of the street was a Temple with a large stone container in which incense was burning. The people would walk us to this and try to wave some of est. Besides the bus driver, there was a young, attractive girl in

Yours truly,

I'm 50 year old with plenty to spare and I'm trying ever day to be worth my sail. I got crab grass, chickens that ain't laying, milk cows that was behind in productoin, notes at the bank, artitis in my big toe, but I ain't shore about this filosophy item.

Uncle Dan Says:

Dear Mister Editor:

I been pritty busy all week in what them school folks calls the field of higher education. It all come about on account of a matter brung up by my preacher Sunday morning. He allowed as how any man that was 50 year old and didn't have a flosophy in life wasn't worth his salt.

First off, I didn't even know how to spell it. I went over to Ed Doolittle's to study op on it in Ed's dictionery and could-o't even find it. I was looking under the F items and Ed's under the F items and Ed's, deughter, the one that works in the city and calls dinner 'lunch,' showed it to me in the P section. The same folks that spells numonia with a P probable invented the P in filosophy. I ain't never spelt numonia with a P and I don't aim to start putting one in filosophy.

From the best I could git out of Ed's dictionery, filosophy is 'moral wisdom.' That's gitting too high up on the ladder, Mister Editor, fer me. Fer instant, I always drive around till I find a parking meter with some time left on it. I know it's wisdom, but is it moral? It looks to me the Bible and leave the dictionery dut of it. I am to put this item on the agenda at the country store Saturday night. Clem item on the agenda at the coun-try store Saturday night. Clem Webster, that finished the 8th grade and is our outstanding scholar, can probable throw some light on the matter.

Gitting ever to matter I can handle a little better, I see where one of them Washington column writers says Goldwater didn't decide to run fer President a year ago until his old aldy give the go-shead signal. I wouldn't doubt it none. I been married a long time and I've found it's mighty hard to git around a woman. And this special true if she's double parking.

Incidental, the papers this week was so full of politics they was beginning to look like the Congressional Record. Ed Doolittle, that claims nothing but Republicans will git by St. Pet-Republicans will git by St. Peter, is telling around the com-munity he found a hen egg in his barn with BG on it fer Barry Goldwater, But I recollect back in 1948 Ed found a egg with TD on it fer Tom Dewey, so I don't put no faith in Ed's hens.

Personal, Mister Editor, my hens has about quit laying. They slowed up in July when the Republican convention started, quit when the Democrats gathered. I reckon they was too worried about the future of the country to set still.

Businesses Of This Area Need Your Help

It has been publicized that businesses have been hampered by the shortage of certain coins in daily circulation. We are asking the public to bring their loose pennies in to us. We will pay you immediately for up to 300 loose pennies. For amounts over $3.00, we will count them through our machine and pay you the next business day. This will help you to get rid of your pennies and at the same time, help merchants get enough change to carry on their businesses. Your help in this effort will be greatly appreciated.

We changed the Buick a lot this year. And you may never be the same again yourself.

We doubt you'll want to be the same. Not once you set eyes on our new Buicks. On the Buick Special and the Skylark. The LeSabre, Electra 225, Riviera. And on the sleek, modified fastback of the wild, wilder, Wildcat in the picture.

True, there's a new high-style touch. But that's hardly all. Engineering still has the emphasis. It's a Buick tradition. So are the extras Buick spends a little extra on. Like finned brake drums that do a little better. And smoother drivelines. A tuned suspension to smooth ribcage roads. Now add Buick's Super Turbine transmissions-and you have an idea of what Buick owners have always liked about Buick. We think you'll feel the same.
